It is Criminal to Neglect the Skin and Hair

THINK of the suffering entailed by neglected skin troubles—mental because of disfigurement, physical because of pain. Think of the pleasure of a clear skin, soft, white hands, and good hair. These blessings, so essential to happiness and even success in life, are often only a matter of a little thoughtful care in the selection of effective remedial agents. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment do so much for poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little, that it is almost criminal not to use them.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a postal card to Cuticura, Dept. B, Boston, will secure a liberal sample of each, with 32-page booklet on Skin and Scalp Treatment.

class of 1902, and was a star football and baseball player during his college days. Soon after graduating he received his appointment in the army, and for several years was instructor in military tactics at West Point. The people of the college and community greatly regret that Captain and Mrs. Dashiels are to leave Blacksburg, but are pleased at his promotion. Captain Dashiels was in charge of the battalion when they visited Richmond and Norfolk last fall, and was highly complimented on the appearance of the cadet corps at that time.

Rev. D. J. Woods, senior chaplain at the institute, preached the baccalaureate sermon at the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College last Sunday.

Professor J. S. A. Johnson and family have recently moved into the house on Faculty Row, for some years the home of Professor and Mrs. W. D. Saunders.

When You Cross the Ocean

A Rountree Wardrobe Trunk will more than prove its worth. With the old-style Trunks, the customs inspectors simply pull everything out and make it different. It opens just like your Chifferobe; your outer garments are all hung up and your linens, etc., are packed in drawers. All the customs inspection is over you do not have any repacking to do. Just think what that means to you.
